

Heather Oppelt, Austen Gray III

Terry de Roy Gruber/Gruber Photographers

Heather Lynne Oppelt, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Michael J. Oppelt of New York, was married yesterday to Austen Townsend Gray III, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Gray Jr. of Locust Valley, N.Y. The Rev. Anthony Schueller performed the ceremony at St. Jean Baptiste Roman Catholic Church in New York.

Mrs. Gray, 29, is the marketing and production coordinator at Alan Flusser Custom, a men's suit designer in New York. She is also a freelance photographer. She graduated from Dickinson College and received a master's degree in photography from the School of Visual Arts. Her father is an owner and the vice president and treasurer of Eastern States Steel, a processor of rolled steel products in Norristown, Pa.

Mr. Gray, 27, is a research analyst in Jersey City on the corporate bond trading desk at FTN Financial. He graduated cum laude from Vanderbilt and is a chartered financial analyst. His father is an architect in Locust Valley.

The bridegroom's maternal great-grandfather Edmund C. Lynch was a founder of the New York brokerage firm of Merrill Lynch.